MARK LEE JOINS FUTURESTEP AS U.K. RECRUITMENT PROCESS OUTSOURCING (RPO) LEADER

U.K. Leadership Reflects Continued Demand for Futurestep RPO Services by Companies Around the World

LOS ANGELES, October 16, 2008 – Futurestep, a Korn/Ferry Company (NYSE: KFY), today announced that Mark Lee has joined the company as U.K. Recruitment Process Outsourcing (RPO) leader. With extensive experience in RPO, he will play a vital role in ensuring the continued success of Futurestep as a premier provider of RPO services in a global market.

Prior to joining Futurestep, Mark served as a business leader for a major U.K. provider of consulting and outsourced services in recruitment and RPO. While there, he led the start-up of the company's RPO and Managed Service business, serving U.K. clients with enterprise-wide multi-year RPO partnerships. The business represented a significant profit generator to the company upon reaching maturity. Prior to a career in recruitment, Lee worked as a researcher and program manager for a niche research consultancy supporting the brewing industry.

"Today, Futurestep is widely recognized as a leader in RPO around the world, and the U.K. is no exception," said Futurestep U.K. Managing Director Leslie Parsons. "We have global reach, competency-based resources and strategic expertise in all aspects of talent acquisition. With the addition of Mark as our U.K. RPO Leader, we also have the proven leadership to grow our business and continue on the path of success established by Futurestep's global Strategic RPO."

"Futurestep is committed to the success of its clients," added Futurestep Chief Executive Officer Robert McNabb. "That's why we believe that it is vitally important to ensure that we have leadership with deep domain expertise, a proven record of business success in the industry and a client-first perspective that focuses on delivering business impact. Mark brings all of these qualities to the table, and his addition helps us continue the momentum that has made Futurestep a premier provider of RPO in the U.K. and around the world."
